

Did You Know?

Seeking new members!

If you have an interest in protecting drinking water, infrastructure, conservation of open space, trees and other natural resources, along with preserving significant historic places in Chester, NY, consider applying!

The Chester Conservation Advisory Council serves as an advisory body to local governing Boards, Planning Board and Zoning Board of Appeals.

The CCAC consists of 9 voting members for a term of two years.

Attendance at regularly scheduled meetings is expected.

Chester residency is required.

Learn more:
<https://chester-ny.gov>

CHESTER
CONSERVATION
ADVISORY COUNCIL
TOWN OF CHESTER, NY